CHARGING RANKS ARE CHEERED

GETTYSBURG, Pa., July 3.—A handful of men in grey re-enacted today the charge of Pickett across the field of Gettysburg. Up the slope of Cemetery Ridge where death kept step with them in '63, 150 veterans of the Virginia regiments of that immortal brigade made their slow parade. Under the brow of the ridge in the Bloody Angle, where the Philadelphia brigade stood that day, was a handful in blue, scarcely larger, waiting to meet the onslaught of peace. There were no flashing sabres, no guns roaring with shell, only eyes that dimmed fast and kindly faces behind the stonewall that marks the angle. At the end, in place of wounds or prison or death, were handshakes, speeches and mingling cheers.

The veterans in grey marched for a quarter of a mile over the ground that they traveled during the charge. They came upon the slope in columns of fours, irregular but responsive to the commands of Major W. W. Bentley of the twenty-fourth Virginia, one of the few officers of either Pickett's or the Philadelphia brigades who was present. Ahead of them marched a band and well down the column was a faded confederate flag, its red field pierced with many holes, its cross bars dimmed and its shaft colored with the sweat of many a man who died that it might fly high in that last desperate effort to pierce the lines. Its progress was slow and painful, for the timothy in the field was high and its plowed surface was not easy for world weary feet. Up to the very edge of the stonewall, covered now with tangled vines, shaded by trees and peaceful as a summer lane, they marched in the hot sun while the band played "Dixie."

There they stood for half an hour while their comrades in blue peered across at them. The blue line formed behind the walls. Over their heads floated a faded standard of the second army corps. Behind them were the statues of the Philadelphia brigade and the fourth United States army battery, where General Armistead died in the midst of the guns, killed, the histories say, by a shot fired by its dying commander, Lieut. Cushing.

As the men in grey formed in a long line facing the wall, the stars and bars and the flag of the second corps were crossed in amity and the stars and stripes were unfurled and the crowds that came to watch burst into a cheer. General J. Hampton Moore of Pennsylvania made a long speech and Major Bentley answered him on behalf of the south. The veterans in grey were a medal provided by John Wanamaker. They crowded over the stonewall, shook hands and the charge was over. There was many a picturesque figure in the line that came up the slope.

W. H. Turpin of the 53rd Virginia appeared in the uniform he wore on the day of the charge. His feet were bound in cloth, he had an army blanket strapped to his back and he calmly smoked a long stemmed corn cob pipe.

There were fifteen regiments in Pickett's following that day. Every field officer was killed or wounded, except one lieutenant colonel and two-thirds of the line of officers met the same fate. Of the 5,000 who charged only about 2,000 returned to the confederate position. The Philadelphia brigade numbered about 1,200 men and lost 453 in killed and wounded.

"Governor's day" in the big tent was a great success. The enclosure was crowded with thousands of cheering veterans. Patriotism and love of country was the keynote of the speeches. Interest was added to the occasion by the presence of a congressional committee of twenty-one representatives and nine senators, who came here this afternoon, headed by Vice-president Marshall and Speaker Champ Clark.

One practical suggestion came from the meeting. Governor Cox of Ohio in the course of his address urged that the national soldiers' home at Johnson City, Tenn., be turned over to the confederates for use as a home for the veterans who fought under the southern flag. The audience voiced its approval of the suggestion by tremendous applause.

ACCEPTS PRINCIPLES.
Washington, July 3.—Belgium today became the twentieth nation to accept the principles of Secretary Bryan's peace plan and to ask for the details.

BALKAN CONDITIONS REMAIN UNCHANGED

HOSTILITIES ARE BEING CARRIED ON
BY BOTH SIDES

It is Believed That Nothing Can Prevent the Struggle Which is to Decide Whether or Not Bulgaria Shall Be Predominant in Confederation.

LONDON, July 3.—The condition of affairs in the Balkans remain unchanged.

The twenty four hours which the Bulgarian government accorded to Greece and Serbia to cease operations have expired. During the same period Bulgaria undertook to abstain from hostilities in order to give Russia time to intervene in favor of peace.

But hostilities are being carried on by both sides, apparently with the fierceness characteristic of the Balkan soldiers and no declaration of war has yet been made. The respective diplomatic representatives are still at their posts. There is now only the faintest hope that Russia or the powers will be able to prevent the struggle which is the decide whether or not Bulgaria shall be predominant in the Balkan confederation.

A new complication arose to day in the decision of Roumania to ally her army. What role Roumania will play is unknown but it causes uneasiness in Austria where it is regarded as a defeat for Austrian diplomacy.

The Belgrade government issued no reports from the theatre of war to day but according to a despatch from Premier Pachitch to the Serbian legation at London the Serbian losses in the first three days fight were 6,000 killed and wounded. This included the great battle at Cvetche poyle. The Serbians captured 2,000 prisoners and 300 guns from the Bulgarians whose casualties exceeded the Serbian. Sixty of the prisoners were officers. That heavy fighting occurred is confirmed by the arrival of 2,000 wounded at Belgrade.

Official reports issued at Athens claim the capture of Guevghell and Kilikish after severe fighting and heavy losses. It is added that Bulgarian prisoners declare that the Bulgarians are preparing to attack Saloniki.

MOTION FOR FORFEITURE OF $30,000 BOND IS DENIED

Precedent Does Not Warrant Forfeiting
Bond Merely Because Johnson
Has Left Jurisdiction of the Court.

Chicago, July 3.—The government's motion for forfeiture of $30,000 bond for Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist to secure his appearance for trial October 13th, was denied by federal Judge Carpenter here today.

This bond was on an indictment charging Johnson with white slavery in transporting Belle Schreiber from Milwaukee to Chicago. The case in which the fighter was convicted was bringing the Schreiber woman from Pittsburgh to this city. He appealed and pending decision was allowed his liberty on $15,000 bail.

Judge Carpenter stated that precedent does not warrant forfeiting a bond merely because a defendant has left the jurisdiction of the court.

SURPLUS INCREASES.

Washington, July 3.—The total amount of money in the United States at the beginning of the new fiscal year amounted to $3,718,379,990, an increase of $12,456,000 over a month ago, according to a statement from the treasury today. Of this $3,371,326,000 was in circulation and $347,053,990 was held in the treasury as assets of the government. Estimating the population of the country as 97,337,000, the treasury announced that the per capita circulation was $34.64 or an increase of ten cents within a month.

MAY NEED TROOPS FOR FIELD SERVICE

CALLING OFF OF RIFLE COMPETITION
CAUSES MUCH SPECULATION

Officers Take News to Mean That Troops Will be Needed Immediately—Message From Chicago Headquarters Bears Out This Probability.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., July 3.—A message today from W. A. Shunk, commanding the central department of the United States army, announcing the calling off of the rifle and pistol competition that was scheduled to begin at Fort Leavenworth, July 15, is causing much speculation at the fort on account of its possible connection with the Mexican situation. Officers take the news to mean that the troops in Texas will be needed for immediate field service. No reason for cancelling the shooting competition was given in Col. Shunk's message.

Probability of immediate service is declared to be borne out by the receipt of a message from the department headquarters in Chicago calling for an immediate report of the number of cavalry stationed here.

Chihuahua Surrounded.
Chihuahua, July 3.—By Courier to El Paso, Texas.—Constitutionalists surrounded Chihuahua in numbers exceeding 2,500. An attack on this city is momentarily expected. The federal garrison here is 4,000 well equipped. Food is scarce and all residents are in a state of high nervous tension. This city of 45,000 souls is cut off from communication. Most of the mining camps throughout the state of Chihuahua have ceased operations and industries have shut down.

Does Not Recognize Right of Anyone to Remove Him Except the President of the United States.

San Francisco, July 3.—In reply to a demand, following a request from Postmaster General Burleson, Arthur G. Fisk again refused today to resign as postmaster of San Francisco.

In answering a telegram from Postmaster Burleson he wired: "I do not recognize the right of anyone to remove me except the president of the United States."

Washington, July 3.—If Mr. Fisk does not resign he will be removed. That was the reply made late today by Postmaster General Burleson to the refusal of Postmaster Arthur G. Fisk of San Francisco to relinquish his office.

He said that complaints of inefficiency had reached the department from many sources. Finally formal charges against Mr. Fisk were filed and it was decided to give the postmaster an opportunity to resign.

NO JOBS FOR LEGISLATORS UNTIL THEY ARE OUSTED.

Illinoisans Not to Get Federal Plums Unless They Fail of Re-election to the State Assembly.

Washington, D. C., July 3.—Democratic members of the Illinois legislature are not to receive any federal plums during the present term of their service. After their terms expire, in case they are not re-elected, they will be permitted to hope for recognition.

This is the sad news which Senator Lewis is said to be bearing to the faithful, lifelong Democrats who helped to elect him to the senate. He left for Chicago this evening to make a Fourth of July address and confer with Gov. Dunne and other state leaders.

The fate of the Illinois legislators is due to the opposition of President Wilson to inducing Democratic state office holders to resign in order to accept federal jobs.

The strikers are displaying an ugly temper.

TO CLEAR DECKS FOR MULHALL TESTIMONY

Senate Lobby Investigating Committee Adjourns
Until Monday

CALL SUGAR-WOOL MEN

Wall Street Sugar and Wool Men Subpoenaed to Appear Monday

LAMAR DOES NOT TESTIFY

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Two short sessions today covering subjects from Wall street operations to lemon growing in California, brought the senate lobby investigating committee to a temporary end again. The committee adjourned tonight until Monday when an effort will be made to clear the decks for the opening of the "Mulhall testimony" involving alleged lobbying operations by the National Association of Manufacturers.

Wall street sugar and wool men were tonight subpoenaed to appear on Monday. Edward Lauterbach and David Lamar will again be questioned as to their participation in efforts to influence members of the Morgan firm.

The committee expects to consume only a short time with the probe of the wool men's activities. Officers of the National Association of Manufacturers have been instructed to be present on Tuesday and Chairman Overman expects that the Mulhall charges will be taken up early in the week.

The demand of the house for a separate investigation of the Mulhall charges which involve the character of several members of the house has been informally considered by the senate committee. It is probable that if the house wants to appoint a committee to act jointly with the senate committee the latter will agree. All of the letters, telegrams and other papers belonging to Mulhall were given to the senate committee today and are now in the custody of John T. Mayland, assistant sergeant-at-arms of the senate.

These papers, Mulhall claims, show that he represented the National Association of Manufacturers in attempting to control legislation. Representative Tamm of Illinois will present a resolution at a meeting of the house committee tomorrow demanding an inquiry into any lobbying operations designed to influence currency legislation and into all efforts by corporations, great "interests" or influential organizations to mould public opinion or to influence congressional action.

David Lamar, the Wall street "operator" whose sensational disclosures yesterday showed how he had misrepresented public men, did not testify again today. Instead Henry B. Martin of Washington, the active figure in an "anti-trust league" took the stand and admitted that he had agreed on a resolution for an investigation of the U. S. Steel corporation and had taken an active part in trying to exert influence in many Washington matters. Martin asserted that the resolution under which the Stanley Steel trust investigation was begun was introduced practically as he and Lamar had drawn it, although Representative Stanley, who introduced the resolution, knew nothing of Lamar's connection. He denied that he knew Lamar had "hawked" the resolution about New York before it was introduced in the house.

Harold Powell, manager of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, testified today as to his activity to prevent lemons being placed on the tariff free list. He said the fight in favor of free lemons had been conducted by the lemon exporters of Palermo, Sicily and the lemon importers of New York.

Mr. Powell was asked if he knew anything of a slush fund collected by the lemon importers for tariff purposes. He said that for a time a tax of five cents a box was collected on all lemons coming into New York, but he did not know how the fund was expended.

CHILD ADMITS PUSHING HIS PLAYMATE INTO CHICAGO RIVER

After Telling Three Other Stories Harold Fragel Confesses He Pushed George Hammer Into Stream.

Chicago, July 3.—Harold Fragel, 7 years old, tonight admitted that he had pushed George Hammer, his 6-year-old playmate, into the river last Tuesday. Harold made his confession seated on the knee of Police Lieutenant Heideimeier while a piece of watermelon served to keep back his tears.

"I pushed George into the river after he had thrown my wagon in," he said.

The boy previously had told three other stories since the disappearance of his playmate. At first he denied having seen George, then said his playmate had climbed in a freight car and then saying he had jumped in the river.

The river has been dragged without success.

Mayor From Operating Non-Union Plants.

Cincinnati, July 3.—Legal complications were added to the grave situation created by the strike of ice-making employees two weeks ago when the manufacturers today attempted to enjoin Mayor Henry T. Hunt and the city from operating eight non-union plants which were seized and put in operation last night by city officials aided by strikers. As a result of the suit brought in the common pleas court the city temporarily retains the plants it seized but will be required to give bond to make good any damage sustained while operating the plants. The amount of the bond was not fixed. After hearing several witnesses the court adjourned until Saturday at 10 a. m., at which hearing the question of granting an injunction against the city will be decided.

PAY TRIBUTE TO COMMODORE PERRY.

Put-in-Bay, O., July 3.—Put-in-Bay Island tonight is the mecca of thousands who tomorrow will join in paying a tardy tribute to the memory of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry, hero of the Battle of Lake Erie fought 161 years ago on Sept. 10th, within gunshot of the Island. The official programme of the Perry centennial will continue until October 5th with celebrations at Toledo, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee, Buffalo, Erie and other lake ports and Louisville, Ky.

Besides paying tribute to Commodore Perry and the Battle of Lake Erie the Perry centennial celebration commemorates the campaign of General William Henry Harrison and the one hundred years of peace that will have ensued between the English speaking nations since the signing of the treaty of Ghent on December 24th, 1814.

BILL IS READY FOR SENATE LAUNCHING

Democratic Caucus Finally Approves Revised Tariff Measure

LAST MEETING SATURDAY

Resolution to Bind the Senators to Support Bill Will be Presented and Adopted

LOWER THAN HOUSE MEASURE

WASHINGTON, July 3.—After three months of tinkering Democratic tariff revision is at last on the way ready for launching in the senate. The Democratic caucus of the senate late to day finally approved the measure as revised by the finance committee majority and by its own action and a final meeting of the caucus will be held on Saturday when the resolution to bind the senators to its support will be presented and adopted. For the first time in history the bill as it comes through the senate revision machinery is a lower tariff measure than passed the house, notwithstanding the fact that the estimated revenues to be derived from the bill as it is now framed are larger by about $5,000,000 than under the measure as it came from the house. The total estimated revenue under the Underwood-Simmons measure will be including the income tax about $3,100,000,000 for the first year. It will be $8,000,000 greater than that, inasmuch as the senate caucus has approved the amendment of the finance committee postponing effectivness of the cut in sugar until March 1st, 1914.

Tomorrow majority members of the finance committee will meet to check upon the final draft of the bill and also to fix a date when all the schedules not specifically provided for shall be effective. It is the sense of the caucus that sometime after the passage of the bill should be granted and it is planned to fix October 1st, 1913, as the date when all the new rates, except sugar and a few other matters otherwise directed shall become operative. As to wool a recommendation of the finance subcommittee will be made on Saturday. Notice was given tonight that the resolution binding the Democrats to support the bill would be introduced Saturday and every Democrat will be urged to be present. Senators Randall and Thornton of Louisiana and Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska will not be bound. No other defection from the party ranks is expected and even Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska is not going to oppose the bill. If all the other senators accept the terms of the binding resolution the administration leaders were assured tonight that they would there will be a clear majority for the bill of two Democratic votes without the vote of the vice-president. The caucus resolution will pledge the members to support the bill as ratified to introduce no amendments and to vote against amendments offered by the Republicans or by Democrats who left the caucus. It is proposed to cut off all long speeches in morning business of the senate and to keep the way clear for interrupted debate of the tariff measure until it has been prepared. It also is proposed to hold sessions beginning at 11 o'clock as soon as the debate begins and later to begin at 10 o'clock every day. The bill will be reported to the senate not later than Wednesday and it is expected bill will be passed by the middle of August. Consideration of amendments in conference probably can be disposed of in two weeks which would give the measure to President Wilson for signatures about Sept. 1.

Change in Amendment.

The caucus approved a change in the child labor amendment. As it now stands the amendment would prohibit the importation of goods "manufactured principally by children under 14 years of age" or coming from countries which have no child labor laws. The caucus inserted the word "principally" and added the latter clause. This is not expected to be a strong protective measure and is aimed chiefly at Asiatic countries.

CITY ATTORNEY THOMPSON GIVES OPINION ON CLAMPT CASE

Claims Council Has Right to Proceed to Fill Vacancy On Board of Education—Vote Taken On T. H. Rapp and Walter Smith.

A special meeting of the city council was held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of hearing the decision of City Attorney P. P. Thompson, relative to the right of the council to fill the vacancy on the board of education, occasioned by the ousting of Dr. L. H. Clampt. Attorney Thompson held that, being the clerk had notified the commissioners that such a vacancy existed they had the power to go ahead and fill the vacancy, and need not wait for legal proceedings.

All members were present except Commissioner Brennan who is in New York on business. The opinion by Attorney Thompson was read by the clerk and on motion made by Commissioner Newman, seconded by Commissioner Knollenberg the council voted to accept the opinion and make it part of the records. Commissioner Knollenberg wanted the matter postponed until the meeting Monday.

Commissioner Newman next moved that the council proceed to elect a member of the board to fill the vacancy. There was no second.

The council proceeded to name a candidate and Walter Smith, a resident of the third ward and president of the Cigar Makers union was presented. He received two votes, that of Commissioners Engel and Newman. The name of T. H. Rapp was presented and he received one vote, that of Mayor Davis. Commissioner Knollenberg refused to vote, stating his reason that he wished the entire council present before any action should be taken. On motion made by Commissioner Knollenberg and seconded by Commissioner Engel the council adjourned.

Attorney Thompson's opinion follows: To the Mayor and Commissioners of the City of Jacksonville, Ill.

The status of the quo warranto proceedings, recently tried in the circuit court, wherein a judgment of ouster was entered against the defendant, Dr. L. H. Clampt, and from which order appeal was prayed for to the appellate court, would in effect operate as a supersedeas in that case.

The question presented to me, however, is what action, if any, should be taken by the commissioners of the city of Jacksonville, after notice to them by the clerk of said city of the removal of a member of the board of education from the ward from which he was elected. The suit in the circuit court was one in which the city of Jacksonville was not a party and the city would not be necessarily controlled by any case wherein it was not a party to the proceedings.

Under the law governing the public schools in the city of Jacksonville we find that: "Removal from his ward by any director shall vacate his office, and whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of director, the city council of Jacksonville shall supply the same upon notice thereof by the clerk of said city." "Director" as used in this law applies to a member of the board of education.

The city council or commissioners are given the power to fill a vacancy when notified by the clerk that a vacancy exists. The commissioners are not required to await legal proceedings, but they may act in the premises on their judgment as to the vacancy said to exist. The commissioners having been notified by the clerk that a vacancy by removal exists, they now have the power to fill such vacancy.

TO BE SAFE AND SANE.
Washington, July 3.—Band concerts, electrical illuminations, athletic meets, literary exercises and historical parades and pageants will combine to make Washington's celebration of the Fourth tomorrow a safe and sane one in the fullest sense. Never before in the history of the national capital have such elaborate preparations been made for a celebration of the holiday. The program will be ushered in at 10 o'clock in the morning with exercises in Continental Memorial hall. At the same hour the municipal track and field meets will begin on the Monument grounds and on the Howard university campus. The big feature of the afternoon will be an historical pageant that will start at the hall and proceed to the Washington monument. The procession will consist largely of costumed or uniformed sections illustrating the social life of America during conspicuous periods in each of the centuries. After the pageant has completed its march a great pantomime spectacle entitled "Uncle Sam's 137th Birthday Party" will be presented in the Ellipse.

EMILE OLLIVIER IS 88.
Paris, July 3.—Emile Ollivier, who was prime minister to Napoleon III. when the latter declared war against Germany in 1870, attained his 88th year today. Ollivier's public career virtually ended with the Franco-Prussian war. Since that time, however, he has accomplished a vast amount of literary work, including a stupendous history of France. At the age of four score and eight he still finds himself capable of working ten hours a day.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The Ladies Aid of Salem church held an all day meeting and patriotic program Thursday at the home of Mrs. Henry Marthole, six miles southwest of the city. A most enjoyable time was passed by all the ladies present and a delicious dinner was served at noon. The program was arranged to commemorate the fourth and the anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg. A patriotic reading was given by Mrs. W. C. Thompson, entitled "Millie Waters' Declaration of Independence." A number of patriotic songs were sung.

Of the thirty guests present eighteen belonged to the aid society. Among the friends present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lindsey of Jacksonville, the parents of the hostess.

The Christian Endeavor society of Northminster church enjoyed a musical social Thursday evening at the home of Daniel Melina, northeast of the city. The young people and the pastor arrived at the home of their host at 8:30 on a hay wagon, bearing a plentiful supply of ice cream and cake. Among those who sang vocal solos were Misses Carolyn Smith, Celia Story, Lola Oliver and Rinda Vieira, Misses Ola DeFreitas and Myrtle Wilson played solos on the piano. Misses Myrtle Wilson and Ruth Menezes favored the audience with a vocal duet and Misses Leona Souza and Margaret Vieira with a piano duet. Readings were given by Misses Esther Spoons, Leora Souza and Thelma Story.

The far off land of Burma with its wealth of forest and mine and its people ignorant of the true God, was the subject considered Thursday afternoon at the meeting of the missionary society of the First Baptist church. Papers were read by Mrs. Sarah A. Coleman, Mrs. T. O. Hardesty and Mrs. L. B. Turner. Two very interesting readings were given by Mrs. H. C. Robinson. The leader of the meeting was Mrs. Mary Springer and the hostess, Mrs. J. H. Davenport of South Clay avenue.

Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. W. A. Jenkinson, Misses Annie and Maude Clayton will entertain at their home 1249 West State street Thursday afternoon, July 10th in honor of Miss Martha Capps.

Mothers should see the display of beach suits, rompers and boy's blouses shown by Garland & Co.

SUNDAY'S MADE "DRY" THROUGHOUT CAPITAL.

Absolutely dry Sunday's are provided for and many novel restrictions are imposed in the drastic excise law for the national capital, which went into effect July 1. Hotel guests henceforth may not have cocktails, highballs or a bottle of beer or wine even with meals on the Sabbath day, nor may liquors be served in clubs to the members thereof.

There is a question whether persons entertaining in their homes on Sunday may serve wine at table. The new excise commission will be called upon to pass on this point, which is likely to reach the courts.

Under the law no woman may be served with liquor in any licensed place, except in hotels and restaurants with meals, and no "restaurant" can qualify as such until so designated by the excise board. This provision has put the restaurant-keepers in a predicament already, as none of them has yet received the legal brand from the commission.

Saloons must keep closed from 1 to 7 a. m. Clubs also become dry at 1 o'clock.

A physician who prescribes intoxicating liquors except for treatment of disease, or a druggist who refills a prescription for intoxicating liquor will be subject to a fine or imprisonment.

VISITORS TO LAKE MATANZAS

Lake Matanzas is finding increased favor with Jacksonville residents as a place for outings both long and short. A number are planning to spend the national holiday at Elsinore cottage. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ransom, Roy Hopper, Albert Hopper, Chauncey Carter, Fred Davy, Lloyd Ross, Hubert Little and Misses Cora Potter, Hazel Strawn, Io Funk, of Chapin, Georgia Hembrough, Esther Royce and Beulah Cummins. A party left for Idlewild cottage Thursday afternoon. W. Macy Brents and family, J. B. Thompson, Herbert Henderson and family, Mrs. J. M. DePew, Squire Amos Henderson, Eileen Sharp and Russel and Helen McDonald will enjoy outdoor life for a week.

We will close at noon to day, on account of July Fourth. Widmayer's Market.

BASEBALL AT FRANKLIN.

The ball game at Franklin this afternoon at 2 o'clock will be played between the home team and the nine free Auburn. The Franklin men are in good condition, having won seven games out of nine this season and a hard fought tussle is expected today. Culin will pitch for Auburn and Wheeler and Seymour for Franklin. Lonergan will catch for Franklin.

MISS DELTA NEISLER RUN DOWN BY AUTOMOBILEWas Struck By Machine Driven By Mrs. Bailey Rexroat, At Corner of East State Street and North East Street.Miss Delta Neisler had a miraculous escape from death Thursday evening about 5 o'clock, when she was struck by an automobile driven by Mrs. Bailey Rexroat. Miss Neisler was crossing the street by the Pacific hotel in company with Mrs. Francis McGinnis, going east when the Rexroat car going east on East State street, turned with good speed up North East street. The young lady was thrown beneath the car, the wheels passing over her body. Dr. Norris was hastily summoned and Charles Ratzibak and Bernard Gause carried the injured girl into the Pacific hotel. Dr.
Norris found she had received a bad bruise on the left side of the cheek and forehead and her left shoulder was also bruised. The car passed over her legs close to the body. Shortly after the accident she was taken to the home of Mrs.
Francis McGinnis, 695 Ashland avenue, where she was visiting, and last night, was resting as well as could be expected although she was complaining of pains. It is not known if she sustained any internal injuries.At the time of the accident there was quite a few people along the street and soon a large crowd gathered. Mrs. Rexroat stated last night that she sounded a warning, but the young lady did not pay any attention to it. She also claims that she was going at a very moderate rate of speed. Others who witnessed the accident state that Mrs. Rexroat sounded the horn in front of the Jacksonville Tailoring company, but not while turning north on North East street. The car is a Cadillac, seven passenger weighing some 3,600 pounds and was occupied both in front and behind and the escape from death by the young lady is indeed miraculous. Mrs. Rexroat regrets the accident very much and Miss Neisler's friends are congratulating her upon her escape. The young lady's home is in Litchfield and she has been in the city several days visiting with Mrs. Francis McGinnis.WIEGAND'S MEAT MARKET

Chicago, July 3.—Three persons to day identified the woman whose body was found in the rear of 701

Miss Mattie Benedict an Italian mission worker. The police were not satisfied, however, it was the fifth time in 36 hours since the body was found that identification had been announced. The police have been unable to find any clue to the murder. The victim was said late to night to be Mrs. Florence Woodruff.
Mrs. Mabel Jossin, who was with Mrs. Woodruff shortly before the murder is under arrest. Mrs. Woodruff was the wife of a waiter.

The Opium Question.

One of the great questions before the Chinese government is that of opium and it is indeed a matter for grave concern. The use of the drug is the greatest curse of the land and to do away with it, is the ardent wish of all far seeing Chinese statesmen and well wishers of the country. All know the disgraceful manner in which Great Britain forced the drug on the nation many years ago in order that East India might have the revenue, the government having a monopoly of the trade. An earnest plea for justice went up from this land and at the Hague tribunal in 1907 there was concluded the ten year agreement, by which it was provided that the sale of the drug should gradually cease, a tenth each year, till it was stopped, as the East India government said it could not have its vast revenue stopped all at once. Then it was hoped that an important step had been taken in the right direction, but facts seem otherwise.In the hotel here is Reverend Edward Waite Thwing, general secretary for China of the National Reform Bureau, and he is earnestly engaged in doing all in his power for the good work, but there is too much money involved and progress is slow, and facts show that the East India government has received up to the present time since the Hague tribunal twenty million pounds sterling in all for the sale of opium in this country, or four millions more than was expected in the whole ten years, and nine millions more than was expected up to the present time, and today there are twenty thousand cases or boxes of opium in Hong Kong, Shanghai, mostly in this city. It is shamelessly sold without restraint and no one has any difficulty in getting a license to sell the drug. At the Hague tribunal the agreement signed January 23, 1912, provided that the opium shops in the foreign settlements should close as fast as those in the Chinese quarter, but no regard has been paid to that promise. The Chinese tried to close, but in the foreign concessions there were in 1911 316 places where opium was sold; in 1912 there were 374 and in 1913 there were 449. China is crying out for justice in the matter, but too much money is invested. It is claimed that the great amount of opium in store has been bought by merchants who are backed by powerful banking interests and they are unwilling to lose their money, which runs away into the millions. The blame for this state of things rests largely on the consuls representing the foreign governments, but the power behind the throne is easy to ascertain.A short time since Mr. Thwing had an interview with W. E. Leveson, secretary of the Shanghai municipal council, and made an earnest plea for the suppression of the sale of opium and quoted the articles of agreement at the Hague tribunal. Mr.
Leveson replied that there was a large increase in the number of opium shops in the city and there was a great increase in the importation of the drug. Anyone could get a license who wanted it and the number would not be reduced, as it was simply a matter of revenue.As to the international opium convention at the Hague it was simply bosh. Article 18, about reducing the number of shops in the foreign concessions as fast as they are reduced in the Chinese quarter was simply a sop to the anti-opium party and there was no intention of carrying it out. The agreement had not been carried out and would not be so long as the importation continued. Those who know the British representatives at the Hague conference and their history would understand that no real action was contemplated. Importation continued the sale would continue and it was all bosh to talk about reducing the number of shops for the sale of the drug.Things had been getting worse for the past year. There had been no attempt at the restriction or sale except by license. If the importation and sale of foreign opium were stopped the sale of native opium could easily be prohibited. The public was simply fooled by the international opium convention. The only thing to do was to awaken public sentiment as to the real truth and have the importation of opium into Shanghai stopped. The Chinese government is doing its best to restrict the local production of opium and has sent troops to many places and destroyed growing poppies, but it can do but little when the drug is imported in such vast quantities and when there is so much money at stake the sale of the noxious material is likely to continue. One member of the government of China suggested buying the forty million dollars worth of opium in stock and destroying it, but in the first place that sum would not buy nearly all and in the next place the government is hardly able to use so much money in that way. The whole question presents many difficulties and bodes great trouble yet for the land.Poppy juice was known to the Romans and the opium poppy seems to have been brought to China by Arab traders probably before the eighth century A. D. A Chinese poet at the beginning of the twelfth century says:"Its seeds are like autumn millet.
When ground they yield a sap like cows' milk and when boiled they become a drink fit for Buddha. Itgives repose for the lungs and nourishment for the stomach. For three years I have gone nowhere and come back from nowhere. A Taoist hermit and a Buddhist monk come and sit opposite me. I forget to speak until I drink a cup of the poppy seed syrup and then I laugh and am happy.
I seem to return to the scene of my manhood and wander along the river there. I seem to be climbing the slopes of the mountain in the west where my boyhood days were passed."Other short notices of the use of the poppy juice occur, until early in the fourteenth century we find this note of warning:"Great care must be taken in its use, for it kills like a knife."In 1688 the dried juice was mixed with tobacco and used variously and in increasing quantities till the Chinese government declared its use illegal in 1786 and this led eventually to the war in 1839, in which the Chinese were defeated and since that time the Chinese nation has been compelled to admit it to its land and it has been one of the chief sources of revenue of the East Indian government. Its use is insidious and well known here. A man may use a little at infrequent intervals, but if kept up regularly for a short time even it becomes a necessity and he will gradually pawn everything he possesses to get it and in time property, soul and body are gone.In 1906 the Chinese government issued a proclamation setting forth the evils of the use of opium and earnestly entreating all to stop using it and to some extent it has been obeyed and the younger generation will probably not be so much addicted to it as the older, but still there is a great deal to be done before anything radical is accomplished.

In General.

The Chinese are a childish race in many ways. One day when we were out two rickshaw men had an altercation, and one of them who was drawing a lady set down his shafts in the broiling sun and went for his antagonist. They were scrapping away when a gentleman, evidently an Englishman, came along in a victoria and seeing the trouble stopped the horse, seized the whip and leaping from the rig began belaboring the coolie who had left his lady in the sun, giving him smart cracks on his bare legs. The fellow didn't like it and turned savagely at the Englishman, but the latter kept on with the whip till the coolie stopped his foolishness and went on with the burden he goes along shouting in a sing song tone, "Yo He Ha!" and can be heard a long way. One day we passed a funeral procession and the coffin, which was heavy, was being borne by four coolies, who had it slung by ropes to their bamboo stick across their shoulders and they went along with the same shouts as usual and the family followed on foot, not seeming at all disturbed by the noise.

RATIFY NEW TREATY BETWEEN
UNITED STATES AND ITALYWashington, July 3.—Ratifications of a new treaty between the United States and Italy, the first of its kind ever negotiated by the American government were exchanged to day by Secretary Bryan and the Italian ambassador. Under its terms the United States guarantees that an Italian subject shall have the same right as a citizen to sue in its courts for damages on account of the death of a relative and Italy gives the same guarantee to American citizens.
The new convention is a result of a decision of the supreme court of the United States, holding that an alien had no right to bring such a suit. Similar treaties between the United States and other countries
probably will follow.FOUND GUILTY OF SWINDLING DR. KIRBY.Chicago, July 3.—John H. Stronsider was found guilty by a jury here to day of swindling Dr. W. T.
Kirby, former private banker out of $20,000. Kirby's bank failed last fall with little assets and the banker who claimed to be insane accounted for $20,000 missing assets by saying that he had been swindled out of the same by the "wire tapping" game.

NEWSPAPER MAN DIES.

Chicago, July 3.—Charles J. Powers, exchange editor of the Tribune died in his rooms at a hotel here today after a brief illness. He was one of the most widely known political writers in Illinois. His body will be sent to Davenport, Iowa, for interment with those of his parents.

WOMEN'S SPACES

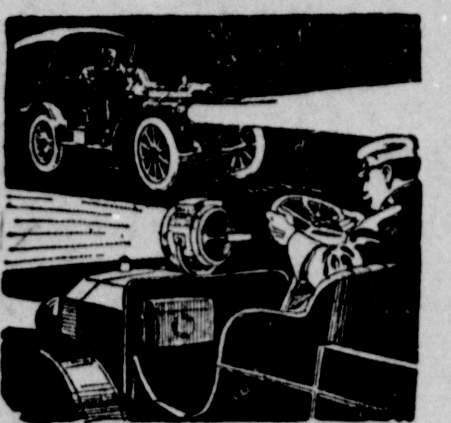

The medicine known from Gels. What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the woman of suffering, for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a cancer fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. HOT WAVE STIMULATES TRADE IN LIGHT FABRICS

WEEK CLOSING HALF YEAR
SOMEWHAT IRREGULAR.

Holiday Accretions Slightly the Prevailing Dullness in Most Wholesale Lines—Lull in Finished Iron and Steel Continues.

New York, July 3.—Bradstreet's statement of trade Saturday will say: The widespread hot wave and the approach of the mid-year holiday have stimulated retail trade in light summer fabrics and furnishings but made for quiet in most wholesale and industrial lines, the latter in most cases arranging for a three days' suspension of operations. The result is a somewhat irregular week closing a half year.

Bank clearings for June and the six months show fractional gains over last year; there were fewer failures in June than in any month for two years and the six months aggregate is below that of 1912 although a few large failures have swelled liabilities above last year.

The really new features of the week are mainly favorable. Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending July 2 aggregate 3,501,323 bushels against 4,201,859 bushels last week and 21,993,538 bushels this week last year. For the fifty-three weeks ending July 2, all exports are 246,112,518 bushels against 175,389,587 bushels in the corresponding period last year. Corn exports for the week are 129,434 bushels against 82,351 bushels last week and 83,272 bushels in 1912. For the 53 weeks ending July 2, corn exports are 39,366,554 bushels against 33,464,511 bushels last year.

Dun's Weekly Review.

Dun's Review Saturday will say: High temperatures throughout most of the country curtailed retail distribution somewhat while the holiday accentuated slightly the prevailing dullness in most wholesale lines. Needed rains in the agricultural regions have improved the crop outlook and harvesting of winter wheat is progressing under ideal circumstances. Private estimates indicate some gain in cotton prospects.

The lull in the iron and steel trade continues as to finished lines but a larger demand for pig-iron appeared during the week than for several months. Buying of equipment by the railroads has been restricted of late, but a fair volume of new business is coming forward in finished products.

Business in leather shows an improvement, with a steadier demand for all grades and footwear salesmen report fair sized orders for immediate delivery although contracts for spring are below expectations. Railroad gross earnings so far for June show an increase of 7.8 per cent as compared with the same month a year ago.

Total bank exchanges at 120 leading centers during June made a gain of 4 per cent over the same month last year but a loss of .8 per cent as compared with the corresponding month in 1911.

Commercial failures this week in the United States are 230 against 197 the corresponding week last year.

You loose if you don't attend Garland & Co's Suit sale.

ABOUT THAT SILO

Time to Make Plans and Get Ready For Fall Use—Saves $156 On Every 40 Acres of Corn.

Many farmers and especially live stock producers have long been convinced of the economic value of the silo, but each year they have said: "I'll build a silo next year." With many of these "next year" has come and gone yet that silo has not been built. Inquiry reveals the fact that in many instances the farmer put off securing the necessary materials until it was too late to get the silo built for fall use. After harvest there is usually a time when materials can be hauled to the farm and now is a good time to make plans and order materials.

Great Loss Last Year. The farmers of Illinois sustain an enormous loss each year because they fail to save the corn fodder. On 6,878,797 acres of land, Illinois farmers produced last year a corn crop valued at $108,827,882 for the grain alone. The feeding value of the fodder when properly saved equals two-thirds the value of the grain, and granting that one-fourth the fodder was saved through the use of the usual methods and the silos already built, the corn raisers of Illinois sustained a loss last year of $27,551,921. What other class of people or business could sustain such a loss each year and keep on doing business?

Loss On 40 Acres. The man who cultivates 40 acres of corn and allows the fodder to waste loses, on the basis of last year's crop, $156.00 annually, an amount sufficient to build a 100 ton silo every three years. With our high priced lands and small margins in feeding live stock the silo has become a modern necessity on every well regulated farm where live stock is produced. The dairyman finds the silo essential to success during the winter and equally valuable during the short pastures in a summer dooth. The feeder of beef, cattle finds that a ration of corn silage and alfalfa pay greatly increases his profits in making high class beef. The hog raiser finds silage and alfalfa valuable for keeping brood sows in good condition during the winter and adds to their efficiency for producing large litters of thrifty youngsters. Silage gives the succulence needed for ewes and when fed silage and alfalfa lambs are stronger and mature quicker for market.

The silo is a labor saving device; it triples the stock carrying capacity of the farm; conserves fertility, and returns its use annually 100 per cent on the investment. A silo and alfalfa on every farm in Illinois will add hundreds of millions of dollars to the wealth of the state. Plan and build a silo this summer.—H. A. McKeene, secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

STATE NEW GAME LAWS

EFFECTIVE JULY 1. Tuesday marked the going into effect of the new game laws, at the same time uniting into one department the fish and game bureaus. The following are some of the changes:

Prairie Chickens may be shot between Nov. 10 and 25. The open season for squirrels is shortened a month, the season opening now on July 1.

Mourning doves may be hunted from Aug. 15 to Nov. 1. Hunters are not allowed to bait with seed or grain to ensnare wild ducks.

The non-resident fishing license fee of $1.00 has been abolished. Hand line fishing may be indulged in at any time of the year.

PROBATE COURT.

In the estate of Thomas Mandeville, probate of will hearing set for July 28.

In estate of Dorris Bishop, report approved.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Bathing Shirt Parade.—A parade of men, women and children in bathing suits will be a feature of the opening of the St. Louis Fairground park swimming pool July 16. It is the largest municipally-owned pool in the world.

Finds Large Pearl.—Joe Johnson of Peoria, a clam fisher on the Illinois river, Tuesday found two pearls valued at $1,400, in pile of clams. He sold the gems for the sum mentioned to a Peoria jeweler.

Mules for U. S. Army.—Ninety mules and ninety horses Tuesday joined the United States army in East St. Louis and started for various stations, where they will be branded "U. S." upon arrival. The horses went to Front Royal, Va., where the army has a remount depot, from which the cavalry is supplied. The mules were sent to various army posts and were evenly divided between heavy mules for wheel teams and lighter ones for leaders.

Sure to Be Married.—Supt. A. E. Kegel of Milwaukee says that kindergarten teachers marry more certainly than others, and attributes the fact to the "motherliness" that the work develops. He adds that there is no promotion for the kindergarten teacher except marriage. In fact it may be generally set down as true that the best occupations for a woman to engage in, if she is looking forward to matrimony, are those of kindergarten teaching and library assistants.

What Has Become of It?—Dean Shaler Matthews of the University of Chicago divinity school says after a couple of million of years almost any one would get tired of standing still and playing the harp, which is the idea of heaven sometimes promulgated. Which led one woman to remark that the children of the present day do not sing that hymn of her childhood, "I want to be an angel and with an angel stand."

Will Go to England.—Bishop Edward W. Osborne of the diocese of Springfield of the Episcopal church, made the announcement that he spend a month in England this summer.

Tramp Killed.—Harry Johnson, an 18 year old boy tramp, started to "beat it" to Pekin. He boarded a freight train. Half a mile south of Elkhart he lost his footing, fell between two flat cars loaded with lumber and was crushed to death beneath the wheels. On its way north the train which killed the boy, injured a foreigner who attempted to board it on the run.

Will Be Held to Contracts.—School teachers in Keokuk will be held to their contracts by the board of education, even to enforcing them through the courts. This action was taken following the resignation of several women teachers, under contract, who quit to be married.

Must Be Vaccinated.—A spread of smallpox at Paxton resulted in the issuance of an order by the mayor today that, after Tuesday, no one will be allowed on streets unless vaccinated.

Protect the Birds.—Thirteen year locusts are due in 1915, and three years later there is to be a visitation of the seventeen year variety of the cicada. Certainty that these pests will appear and they will destroy much vegetation unless they are checked, calls attention to the desirability of protecting bird life at this time. The locust army should be met with an army of feathered warriors, and it will be if every one does his full duty toward the birds.

Should Cull the Flocks.—Prof. J. G. Halpin of the Wisconsin college of agriculture has issued a bulletin, advising poultry raisers to cull their flocks at this season. He calls attention to the fact that prices are high and since it is well to get rid of fowls which do not promise well, he thinks the poultrymen could do no better than to unload while the market is attractive.

Beer is Poured Into River.—Owing to a failure to pay the tax, 8,081 barrels of beer of the closed Mendota Brewing company was turned into the Mendota river at Mendota, resulting in the death of thousands of fish and detriment to farmers' stock along the river. The farmers are up in arms and threaten dire vengeance on the city for allowing the beer to be poured into the river.

Resigns As Roadmaster.—J. R. Holliday, who has for several years held the position of roadmaster on the south end of the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railroad, has resigned that position. Mr. Holliday has been succeeded by A. D. Millard, who has for some time been connected with the civil engineering department of that road.

Sheriff's Life Saved By Wife.—Mrs. Frank Cook, wife of the Shelby county sheriff, saved her husband's life and kept two prisoners from escaping Tuesday by locking the jail door and pointing a revolver at the prisoners. The prisoners were choking the sheriff when she saw them. He had entered the jail to lock the cells.

Collins Had the Better of Johnson in the Matter of Hits But the Latter Did Some Fine Fielding and Was Given Brilliant Support.

Boston, July 3.—A pair of two base hits coming in the fifteenth inning of the longest game of the season here with a score of 1 to 0, in Washington's favor.

Manager Griffith was put off the field for making too vigorous protest on a decision.

Beall's Single, Sacrifice by Rath and Lord's Long Single Was Sox Winning Combination.

St. Louis, July 3.—Chicago won the opening game of the series with St. Louis today by 4 to 3 in the tenth inning. In the sixth inning Eddie drove the ball over the left field fence for a home run, scoring Chase ahead of himself. It was one of the longest hits made on the local grounds.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES

Heine Zimmerman, for his two weeks of good behavior toward the umpires was rewarded with the $100 contributed by a fan. The Bronx pretzel, however, had a close call in not being wrecked at the switch in the game Wednesday afternoon, when he attempted a call down of Umpire Quigley. The latter is new in the National league, and was in the act of walking toward Zimmerman to chase him out of the yard, when the Bronx swatter "came out of it," and walked away.

Jimmy Callahan, dickering all season with Boston, has at last landed "Buck" O'Brien, and will turn him over to Ed Walsh, who will "try to make a pitcher" out of him.

The old eagle will screech and scores of pugs will gather the kale this glorious Independence day. The one about in which interest will center will be that between Champion Ritchie and the handy Mexican, Joe Rivers. And the go between Leach Cross and the fast-coming young Anderson has every indication of being anything but slow.

Plans are in the making for a big regatta to be held on Lake Cooper, a mile above Keokuk's big dam in August. The course will be staked and laid out by the Mississippi Power Boat association tomorrow.

Ad Brennan will in all likelihood be handed a heated package today from President Lynch for his try at disfiguring Muggsy's "handsome" countenance on Monday. Lynch investigated the trouble on Wednesday and returned to the Flatiron building in Gotham, where his typewriter is stored. Note—Since the foregoing was put in type the package arrived. The Quaker drew five days lay-off and $100 fine. McGraw was given five days on the outer walls for the glibness of his tongue.

While trifling with a toy cannon at San Francisco on Wednesday, Willie Hope lost the thumbs and the index fingers of both hands. Ad Wolgast one year ago touted Hoppe as the coming light weight champion.

Rube Peters has evidently gotten away from his morning glory puzzle, and is now twirling a fair article of ball—he wins a game now and then for Omaha.

Pitched Davis of Columbus hurled a no-hit game against the Indians at Indianapolis for a shut-out Wednesday. Only four of Mike Kelly's men saw first during the game, two on passes and two players were beamed.

Clarkson, one of the best of the war scribes, is responsible for the following in one of the Chicago sporting extras: "Bush made a run for the Tigers in the first. He led off with a double down the left foul line and stole second."

Providence only will now stop those Giants. They are now entering the back stretch, and a tribe of Whisk Brooms will not be able to head them to the wire.

Zimmerman Receives Other Half of $100 Bill—Money Presented by Umpire Brennan.

Chicago, July 3.—Chicago bunched hits off Suggs today and defeated Cincinnati by 5 to 1.

Third Baseman Zimmerman of Chicago today received the other half of a $100 bill, half of which he received two weeks ago from a "fan" who said he would give the player the other half today if he was good for two weeks and did not get chased by the umpires. The Perfect Baby Of The Future

A Simple Method That Has a Wonderful Influence upon The Future Infant.

Too much can not be said for a wonderful remedy, familiar to many women as Mother's Friend. It is more eloquent in its action than all the health rules ever laid down for the guidance of expectant mothers. It is an external application that spreads its influence upon all the organs, muscles, ligaments and tendons that nature calls into play; they expand gracefully without pain, without strain, and thus leave the mind care-free and in joyful anticipation of the greatest of all womanly ambition.

Mother's Friend must therefore be considered as directly a most important influence upon the character and disposition of the future generation. It is a conceded fact that, with nausea, pain, nervousness and sleeplessness, there is stored up such an abundance of healthy energy as to bring into being the highest ideal of those who fondly theorize on the rules that insure the coming of the perfect baby.
Mother's Friend can be had at any druggist at $1.00 a bottle, and it is unquestionably one of those remedies that always has a place among the cherished few in the medicine cabinet.

Mother's Friend is prepared by the Bradford Regulator Co., 133 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., after the formula of a noted family doctor.
Write them for a very instructive book to expectant mothers. See that your druggist will supply you with Mother's Friend.
There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived from this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance. All you need to do but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES.

Denver has ten public playgrounds, with a teaching corps of 19
men and women.

Women teach practical agriculture in the elementary schools of Tippecanoe county, Indiana.

Swimming lessons, sex hygiene instruction aviation and wireless telegraphy are some of the new subjects in city public schools, as reported to the United States bureau
of education.

"The best thing in my section this year was the introduction of industrial education for the negroes by means of a negro supervisor," writes a division superintendent of schools in Virginia.

It costs 25 typical American cities an average of less than a dollar a year per pupil to provide free textbooks according to W. S. Deffen-baugh, of the United States bureau
of education.

The course of study in the Alabama normal schools is to be radically changed to include such subjects as: Rural sociology, biology, domestic science, domestic art, library methods, school gardening, and agriculture through club work.

Some of the rural schools in the state of Washington have college graduates as teachers. In that state they pay good salaries to country teachers because they believe that the country schools should be as well taught as the city school.

Kentucky is having a real educational awakening, so real that people are not afraid to pay what it costs to create and maintain an efficient system of schools. One tax collector reports that citizens who have been in the habit of complaining because of higher taxes said it was "all right," when informed that the increased rate was in order to give more money to the public schools.

Consolidation of schools is going on to such an extent in the United States that, even with a building boom in progress, many localities report fewer schools each year. Tennessee offers some notable examples. Knox county has erected 14 new buildings during the year, yet the total number of school houses in use has been reduced from 154 to 134. How consolidation helps attendance is shown by another Tennessee county (Lauderdale), where a new consolidated school had twice the enrollment of the combined three schools which it replaced. The better consolidated school attracts better attendance, despite the fact that it is less easy to reach.

FINAL SPECIAL TAX NOTICE.

In the matter of the special tax of the city of Jacksonville for the construction of a vitrified pipe sewer on Dunlap street.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested, that the Board of Local Improvements of said city has heretofore filed in the county court of Morgan county, Illinois, in said cause, a certificate showing the cost

YOU SHOULD NOT USE COMMERCIAL CULTURE

ILLINOIS FARMERS ARE WARNED AGAINST CERTAIN CULTURES.

Many Commercial Cultures Are Too Expensive to Use and Are of Questionable Reliability.

By A. L. Whiting, Soil Biologist, University of Illinois.

It seems imperative to caution Illinois land owners again against the use of the greatly advertised commercial cultures, better known under some trade name, such as "Nitro-Culture," "Nitro-Bacterine," "Azotogen," "Nitragin," and "Farmogerm."

It is almost needless to state that these cultures are too expensive to use, besides being of questionable reliability.

In this state the chief legumes are the clovers, alfalfa, cowpea and soybean. The need of inoculation for clover is not very urgent on any soils, and the alfalfa and soybean should be inoculated without fail in soil where they have not been sown. All of these crops are grown in sufficient areas in the various sections of this state to permit ready access to soil for inoculation. The soil inoculation methods and the glue method, both of which are treated in Circular No. 86 of the agricultural experiment station, Urbana, Ill., more fully at this time, are known to be efficient, less expensive and more satisfactory than any of the commercial cultures on the market.

First, let it be said that recent review of work in Germany and in this country of scientific nature on these legumes, is thoroughly convincing to readers that as yet this method of distribution practiced even under advice and control of experiment stations, is not as successful as the inoculation methods. It is not to be expected that the commercial companies will ever approach the above mentioned success as their operations are limited, or perhaps as in some cases, they are from the laboratories themselves, by questionable methods.

The author has occasion to look up source of some of the literature used by these companies and found that a good many erroneous and misleading statements had been made in making use of a larger number of photographs taken from the various experiment station publications, which, while public property, should be understood that the Illinois experiment station does not sanction the use of its publications for commercial enterprises.

In studying the various experiments reported, some interesting facts have been revealed. As these are chosen to quote some authorities, it is not to be expected that they will also quote from some of the same sources.

Kellermann of the United States department of agriculture, in a recent review of the subject of soil inoculation, makes the following statement: "The present status of pure-culture inoculation can therefore be stated only in a somewhat negative manner, and may be briefly described as follows: The method of pure-culture inoculation is less certain than inoculation by transfer of soil from old well-inoculated fields."

As far as known none of the experiment stations recommend the use of these commercial cultures, although some do consider their own pure-cultures as very reliable and these are usually sent out to the farmers at a cost of about one-tenth that charged by the promoters of the artificial cultures.

While there is one theoretical objection to the soil methods, and while the above mentioned culture might have some value (if entirely as guaranteed) in sections of the country where it is as yet difficult to obtain soil for inoculation, these materials are unwarranted and absolutely unnecessary where soil is always readily available.

Methods of Advertising.

Recently the writer has received several highly colored booklets with such glaring titles as below:

"How to Grow Alfalfa the Wonder Crop."

"Clover the Great Cash Money Crop and All About It."

The above literature is published by Galloway Bros. Bowman Company, Waterloo, Iowa. Copyright, 1912-13, by German-American "Nitragin" Company, Milwaukee, Wis. A charge of 25 cents for the first and 35 cents for the second is made. These are chiefly for advertising the commercial culture "Nitragin" and one can easily see by reading the testimonials that none of the experiment stations from whose records the statements are abstracted, recommend the product in any official statement or letter.

This product is put up in cans and costs $2 per acre.

Another widely advertised culture is "Farmogerm." This "Farmogerm" is put upon the market by the Earp-Thomas Company of Bloomfield, New Jersey, and its value of the same grade as the other brands mentioned for the Illinois farmers.

A recent article by Breckman in the Illinois farmer, states that this company is operating under two names and selling a product similar to "Farmogerm" under another name. Thus, it is easily seen that as yet experiment stations do not care to recommend the use of these cultures.

Experiment Stations Do Not Recommend Commercial Cultures.

To the farmers of Illinois it should be said that these cultures are not recommended by the agricultural experiment station at Urbana, Ill., for the following reasons:

1. It is yet to be shown that they are reliable in general use.

2. The prices charged are beyond all reason, even when the product reliable, $2 per acre being the cost as used by the directions furnished.

3. Soil transfer and the glue method under Illinois conditions cost about one-tenth this amount.

4. Until more facts are forthcoming the farmers need have no fear from the spread of disease by transferring soil from one field or from one farm to another. This suggestion is made that a little sense be exercised in selecting the soil for shipment, and there is every reason to believe that this is being done in this state.

It is highly gratifying to note that some of our reliable seed companies in Illinois, as well as other firms engaged in agricultural enterprises do not list in their catalogs these products, although, no doubt, great profits might accrue thereby.

It is hoped this article will serve to eradicate in the minds of its readers any doubt regarding the present attitude of the experiment station towards these commercial cultures.

VETERINARIAN TALKS ON CARE OF THE FOAL

NO EXACT RULE CAN BE LAID DOWN FOR SUCCESSFUL RESULTS.

Stockman Who Works Out His Own Problems, Studying Conditions and Endeavoring to Raise His Own Standards is Pretty Certain of Success.

(By E. T. Baker, Head of Department of Veterinary Science, College of Agriculture University of Illinois.)

Begin caring for the foal at least eleven months before it is born. Combining reasonable effort with good common sense, is better than all the beautiful theories ever worked out by men who can write with a facile pen about things of which they have no practical knowledge.

No exact rule can be laid down to produce the most successful results. Two ranchers, living on neighboring farms, used radically different methods in the care and treatment of both dam and foal. Each gained the desired results. Which one was correct? The stockman who works out his problems, studying to raise his own standards, will have more success than trying to fit his environment with another's theory. This is why we see and hear such hostile arguments at farmers' institutes. One man declares feeding much grain to the pregnant mare produces big, phlegmatic colts. He tells, with a pitiful sob in his voice, how the best mare he ever owned died from difficult delivery. Another gentleman solemnly declares full feeding essential to produce a healthy colt. He cites instances of abortion brought on by the mare's living on a diet of straw and scenery. So the dispute goes on.

With the idea of allowing every stock raiser the privilege of adhering to his own peculiar views, the following suggestions are offered:

(1) Dr. W. L. Williams, in his admirable work on veterinary obstetrics, says: "The new born generally gets the best care from the mother, when she has been given natural and proper environment in which to bring forth her young, and the birth as being normal. So far as it is practicable, the care of the young should be left to the instinct of the mother, but the conditions of domestication impose certain dangers and risks to the newborn, which intelligent care upon the part of the owner may minimize or obviate."

(2) After having put the mare about to foal in a comfortable, roomy box stall, thoroughly disinfected with a 5 per cent solution of carbolic acid (to prevent navel ill), leave her alone.

(3) Presuming the newborn colt is normal, very little need be done. If you must do something, work off your surplus energy by currying some other animal. "Meddlesome midwifery" kills many a mare or colt.

(4) Should the nostrils be stopped with mucous, clean out with the fingers. Then examine to see if natural apertures are normal. If the navel cord be too long it may be cut off about one and a half inches from the body and tied with a cord soaked in alcohol. Later, if constipation seems present, causing pain in the foal an injection of warm salt water is often indicated.

(5) Don't allow too frequent feeding. More foals succumb to this than from starvation.

(6) Should diarrhoea set in and scouring be persistent, give two raw eggs beaten up, into which has been added a tablespoonful of brandy and 20 grains of subnitrate of bismuth. Often the milk of the dam is at fault and this should be remedied.

(7) For navel ill, employ a competent veterinarian at the onset of disease. He will not only use drugs and vaccines, which are proving very efficacious. Prevention is the best cure.

(8) For ailments affecting colts and suggestions to remedy the same remember it pays to consult with your veterinarian. He has your best interests at heart, and he realizes that the more foals successfully raised the more brisk will business be in his line.

VOLUME OF BUSINESS LOWEST OF THE YEAR

STOCK MARKET VIRTUALLY AT A STANDSTILL.

While the Drift Was Downward Movement Was So Slight as to Be Almost Imperceptible—No Outside Interest.

(By Associated Press)

New York, July 3.—Affairs were virtually at a standstill today in the stock market. The principal theme was among the Balkan nations and consequent depression of European changes. Traders were inclined to follow the course of the foreign markets. Trading, however, was perfunctory. The volume of business fell to the lowest of the year and while the drift was downward the movement was so slight as to be almost imperceptible. Most of the prominent speculative stocks moved up or down as much as a point. There was no outside interest in the market and professional traders were unwilling to make extensive new commitments on the eve of the holiday.

Progressive Breeding—Domestic animals left to themselves tend to degenerate, and for this reason man's attention and effort is necessary in breeding them to offset this tendency. Applying this principle directly to our subjects we promise that it is an established fact that certain breeds of fowls have well defined characteristics peculiar to themselves. These traits are in some instances purely arbitrary, in others valuable. They have been developed by careful breeding along definite lines. If the fowls are left to themselves then these traits become less prominent and may ultimately disappear. On the other hand, when careful selection is practiced, not only the characteristics already obtained are kept but the breed may be developed to a higher plane of excellence in the same line, or new characteristics of greater value may be added. And it is just here that the individual fancier has the broadest field. Be his breed what it may, by careful selection he can produce a strain of birds which can be made to excel all others of the same breed in almost any desired respect. By a definite line of breeding the excellencies of any strain can be transmitted and made permanent. Therefore, the practical importance of the fancier is in perpetuating the best characteristics of certain breeds of fowls, and in perfecting their useful qualities. Then too, by judicious crossing of two or more breeds, he may originate a new breed which possesses a combination of the best features of the parent stock, or even valuable traits entirely new. These traits are again made permanent by long continued breeding. However, only a small portion of this developing of new strains is legitimate, and in the great majority of cases, such combinations result in producing varieties marked by peculiarities and not by valuable qualities.

Supporters of the shows—It is the fanciers mainly who support and encourage the numerous excellent poultry exhibitions which aid materially in making poultry-keeping popular.

It is owing to the patronage of the fanciers largely that so many excellent and enterprising poultry papers are published and extensively read.

Source of Improvement—Thoroughbred fowls are the source of pure blood for the improvement of the numerous flocks of the farms and poultry plants.

It is due to the fanciers that they may be given credit for their earnest efforts which have resulted in the improving and popularizing of poultry and the advancing of the country calling in a way which renders it attractive to thousands of people who gain thereby increased pleasure and profit in life.

Location of Plant—Presuming that after due deliberation a person has decided to take some line of poultry keeping, the next step, and it is a important one, is the selection of a suitable location. The location may be decided whether the undertaking shall result successfully or end in failure. It is fundamental. It is the basis of the business and once settled upon, is not usually changed without expense and loss. The land and the buildings placed upon it require the investment of fixed capital which should not be specified. It is well to consider this matter thoroughly and start right. H. A. McKeene, Secretary, Illinois Farmers Institute, Springfield, Illinois.

FINAL SPECIAL TAX NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to all persons interested, that the Board of Local Improvements of said city has heretofore filed in the county court of Morgan county, Illinois, in said cause, a certificate showing the cost of the work, the amount reserved for interest, and also that the improvement has been constructed in substantial conformity to the requirements of the original ordinance, therefore.

The hearing to consider and determine whether or not the facts as stated in said certificate are true, will be held in said court on the 24th day of July, A. D. 1913, at 9 o'clock or as soon thereafter as the business of the court will permit.

All persons desiring may file objections in said court before said day and may appear on the hearing and make their defense.

CALLS ATTENTION TO NEW LAW RELATIVE TO TOY PISTOL

Assistant State Fire Marshal Writes of New Illinois Statute Effective July 1st.

Chief of Fire Dept. Wood received from the Assistant State Fire Marshal a bulletin, relative to the new law forbidding the sale of the toy pistol. The bulletin reads as follows:

I beg to call your attention to a bill recently passed by the Legislature of the State of Illinois, making it a misdemeanor to sell, trade or give away a toy pistol so made or constructed that it can be used to shoot cartridges. The law is effective July 1st, 1913, and ought to be called to the attention of all your local dealers and to the newspapers of your city, so that there may be as few violations as possible on July 1st.

This is a good law, inasmuch as each year on July 4th many injuries and deaths are caused by accidents through the use of toy pistols. Any injury so received is apt to result in a case of blood poisoning or lockjaw and a slight abrasion of the skin oftentimes results in death.

The following is a verbatim copy of the law as passed.

"An act making it a misdemeanor to sell, trade or give away a toy pistol so made or constructed that it can be used to shoot blank cartridges; and to fix the punishment therefor."

"Section 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly: That it shall be unlawful to sell, trade or give away any toy pistol so made or constructed that it can be used to shoot blank cartridges. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than five dollars ($5.00) and not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25)."

Assistant State Fire Marshal

First Deputy.

ARMY OF EDUCATORS AT SALT LAKE.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 3.—A vast army of educators, representing every state and every institution of learning, from the humble district school to the most prominent of the colleges and universities of the country, enrolled today as delegates to the annual convention of the National Education Association, which opens its preliminary work tomorrow. Preparations are being made to care for 15,000 visitors during the week of the convention.

The first real business of the convention will be the meeting of the National Council of Education on Saturday. The first session of the convention proper will be called to order Monday in the great Mormon tabernacle, where 10,000 persons may be seated and hear distinctly every word spoken in ordinary tones from the rostrum.

The second general session of the convention will be held Tuesday afternoon at Saltair, a bathing resort on the shores of the Great Salt Lake. All the other general sessions of the week will be held in the tabernacle. In addition to these general sessions, at which addresses will be delivered by educators of national prominence, the week's program provides for daily meetings of a score or more of departments of the association, at each of which a different branch of educational work will be discussed.

MRS. W. W. CRANE SUCCEUMS TO STROKE OF APOPLEXY

Well Known Resident of Jacksonville Passes Away Suddenly Last Evening—Funeral Arrangements to Be Made Later.

The community was greatly shocked Thursday evening on hearing of the sudden death of Mrs. Ella Crane, wife of Dr. W. W. Crane of 223 West College avenue, who succumbed to a stroke of apoplexy after a few hours illness. Mrs. Crane went out in the back yard about 11 o'clock, attending to some household duties when she became ill. She called for help and her youngest son Walter went to her assistance. He summoned other members of the family. By that time Mrs. Crane had gotten on the back porch when she fell. Dr. Crane picked her up and carried her into the house. Dr. T. J. Pitner and Dr. Charles E. Cole were summoned and she was made as comfortable as possible. As evening came on the family thought that she showed some symptoms of being better. She took a sudden turn for the worse about 7:30 o'clock and within five minutes passed away. Only one did she show signs of consciousness and that was about three-quarters of an hour after she received the attack. She heard Dr. Crane talking to his son over long distance, telling him of her condition and she said that she didn't think it would be necessary to call him home as she would be better in a short time.

Everyone who knew Mrs. Crane loved her for her beautiful life and spirit, and recognized that they had in her a true and noble friend. She was ever ready to aid the needy, comfort the distressed and bring cheer and hope to the downcast. Life was full of meaning to her and she ever carried out in her own life the principles which go to make up the true type of a noble woman. And while she took a great interest in the welfare of her neighbors and friends, she was truly devoted to her home and there found her ideal life. She was indeed a devoted wife, a loving mother, a good neighbor and her passing away will bring deep sorrow to many. Mrs. Crane joined the M. E. church when fourteen years of age and ever took an active part in church work. She attended Centenary Methodist church and was a member of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society there.

Her maiden name was Ella C. Foster, daughter of Jacob and Roxanna Foster and was born near Richland, Sangamon county, May 30, 1856. She was married to Dr. W. W. Crane, August 24, 1874. She received her education in the public schools of Sangamon county and graduated from the Betty Stuart Institute of Springfield. For 25 years the family lived in the Sinclair neighborhood and four years ago moved to Jacksonville.

Besides her husband Mrs. Crane is survived by six children, three daughters and three sons, Katherine M. Florence, and Mary and Elsie C. Charles W. and Walter W. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Catherine Hilbery of Cora Lynn, Alberta, Canada, and three brothers, B. B. Foster and Charles Foster of Bartlesville, Oklahoma and Oliver C. Foster of Correctionville, Ia. Funeral arrangements will be made later.

Little Miss Isabelle Thompson acted as the ring bearer and Mrs. R. E. Thompson, a sister of the groom, played the wedding march.

After congratulations a wedding breakfast was served and the bride and groom departed for an extended trip through the west, after which they expect to return to Jacksonville to reside. Mr. Knollenberg, who is accounted one of the most successful of Jacksonville's younger business men, is the youngest son of H. H. Knollenberg. His wife, who until recently has held a position at the Jacksonville State hospital, is an estimable young lady and both have a wide circle of friends who will extend congratulations.

TO ATTEND ELKS' CONVENTION.

Dr. Allen M. King and Curtis Copp expect to leave tonight for an extended trip through the east, and while away Dr. King, who is a delegate from local lodge of Elks, will attend the national convention of Elks to be held at Rochester, N. THEIR WISH GRANTED.

The late Robert Buckthorpe and J. W. Harney who passed away so suddenly Wednesday were long time friends. They some times talked of the final hour which must come to every man and both expressed the hope that when their summons came that there would be no long drawn out illness, but a quick going. It is recalled now the wish of both these men was granted.

AMERICAN ROAD CONGRESS.

Will Be Held in Detroit in September—Big Commercial Exhibit.

After keen competition among a number of cities, including St. Louis, Denver, Minneapolis, Buffalo and Detroit, the joint committee having the matter in charge decided to hold the American Road congress at Detroit during the week of September 29. This will mean the greatest road assemblage ever held in the United States as the congress comprises the American Highway association, with upwards of 2,000 regular members and more than 15,000 associate members; the American Automobile association, with over 70,000 members; the Michigan Good Roads association, which is strongly organized in every part of the state, and in addition to this it is quite probable that the Ontario Good Roads association will join with the others, thus making the congress an international affair.

A great commercial exhibit will be held under the auspices of the National Association of Road Machinery and Material Manufacturers, and arrangements have already been made for the exhibition of the wonderful collection of road models owned by the United States government. The president of the United States and the governor general of Canada will be urged to attend and already the foremost engineers and highway officials of the country have accepted places on the program. PRESIDENT RETURNS FROM THREE DAYS CRUISE Returns to White House Much Rested—Will Speak at Gettysburg Today.

Washington, July 3.—President Wilson returned to the white house late today, tanned by the sun after a three days cruise on the Mayflower in lower Chesapeake Bay. In accordance with the president's wishes all formality was abandoned on the yacht. The officers aboard were informed that the president didn't want any salutes fired or any fan fares blown. When he returned to Washington there was no group of officers standing at attention at the gangway as has been the custom.

Dr. Grayson, U. S. N., was his only companion, not even the secret service men being along. The president did not work while away. He got the regular budget of news sent out to ships at sea by wireless, however. He planned to leave early tomorrow for Gettysburg, Pa., where his schedule calls for an hours stop and a brief speech, continuing on to Cornish, N. H., by way of New York city. He is due in Cornish, early Saturday. He expects to return to Washington on Tuesday.
